22. The Company may sell, in such manner as the Board may think fit, any share on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and is not paid within 14 clear days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable and giving notice of the intention to sell in default of such payment, has been served on the holder of the share. For giving effect to any such sale the Board may authorise some person to transfer the share sold to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser. The purchaser's name shall be entered into the Register as the holder of the share and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

24. Subject to the terms of issue, the Board may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares whether or not payable on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue, and each Member shall (subject to the Company serving upon him at least 14 days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment (except that no such notice shall be required where the terms of issue specified such matters)) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may, before receipt by the Company of an amount due under it, be revoked or postponed as the Board may determine. A person upon whom a call is made shall remain liable on such call notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.

Calls, how made

25. A call may be made payable by instalments and shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed.

Calls, when made

26. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of the share.

Liability of joint holders

27. If any sum payable in respect of any call is not paid on or before the day appointed for its payment, the person from whom that sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment to the time of actual payment at such rate, not exceeding 10 per cent. per annum, as the Board may determine, but the Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

28. No Member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or bonus or to be present either personally or by proxy and vote (save as proxy for another Member) at any general meeting, to be counted in a quorum, or to exercise any other privilege as a Member unless and until all moneys due from him to the Company in respect of any call or instalment of a call, whether alone or jointly with any other person, have been fully paid-up.

Suspension of

30. Subject to the terms of issue, the Board may on the issue of shares differentiate between the allottees or holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

Power to attach different conditions to calls

31. The Board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced the Company may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate, not exceeding (unless the Company by ordinary resolution shall otherwise direct) 10 per cent. per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Board and the Member paying such sum in advance provided that until a call is made any payment in advance of a call shall not entitle the Member to receive any dividend or to exercise any other right or privilege as a Member in respect of the relevant shares. The Board may at any time repay the amount so advanced upon giving to such Member not less than 14 clear days' notice in writing of its intention to do so.

Payment of calls in advance

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

32. If any call or instalment of a call remains unpaid on any share after the day appointed for its payment, the Board may at any time serve a notice on the holder of such share requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.

If all or instalment not paid, notice may be given

33. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than 14 days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which, and the place where, the payment required by the notice is to be made and shall state that in the event of non-payment on or before the day and in the manner provided, the shares in respect of which such call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited. The Board may accept the surrender of any share liable to be forfeited and, in that event, references in these Articles to forfeiture shall include surrender.

Form of notice

34. If the requirements of any such notice are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice was given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls or instalments and interest due in respect of it has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends and bonuses declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

If notice not complied with, shares may be forfeited

35. When any share has been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be served upon the person who was before the forfeiture the holder of the share, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice.

Notice after forfeited

36. Until cancelled in accordance with the requirements of the Ordinance, a forfeited share shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of either to the person who was, before forfeiture, the holder or to any other person, upon such terms and in such manner as the Board shall think fit, and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposition the forfeiture may be annulled by the Board on such terms as the Board may think fit.

Forfeited share to become property of Company

37. 37A. The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share, and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the Member whose share is forfeited and the Company, except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by these Articles expressly saved, or as are by the Ordinance given or imposed in the case of past members.

Extinction of interest and claims

38. A statutory declaration that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company and that a share has been duly forfeited on the date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The Company may receive the consideration (if any) given for the share on its sale, re-allotment or disposition and the Board may authorise some person to transfer the share to the person to whom the same is sold, re-allotted or disposed of, and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the forfeiture, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

Evidence of forfeiture and proceeds of sale

41. The instrument of transfer of a share shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect of it. The machine imprinted signature of an instrument of transfer may be accepted by the Company for the purpose of such transfer subject to any terms which the Company may impose. All instruments of transfer, when registered, may be retained by the Company. Any instrument of transfer which the Board refuses to register shall (except in the case of fraud) be returned to the person lodging it when notice of the refusal is given.

Execution and delivery of instrument of transfer

42. The Board may, subject to section 151 of the Ordinance, at any time in its absolute discretion decline to register any transfer of any share which is not a fully paid-up share or any share issued under any share incentive scheme for employees of the Company in respect of which a restriction on transfer imposed on that share still subsists.

Directors' right to refuse registration

Recognition of survivors

48. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member or otherwise by operation of law may, subject as provided elsewhere in these Articles and upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board as to his entitlement, either be registered himself as the holder of the share or elect to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee of the share. The Board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and if the notice is not complied with within 60 days the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with. If the meeting is to be held at two or more places, the notice of meeting shall specify the principal place of the meeting and the other place(s) of the meeting. The notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify the meeting as such, and the notice convening a meeting to pass a special resolution shall specify the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned to all Members other than such as, under the provisions of these Articles or the terms of issue of the shares they hold, are not entitled to receive such notices from the Company, and also to the Directors and Auditors for the time being of the Company.

If the Board, in its absolute discretion, considers that it is impractical or unreasonable for any reason to hold a general meeting on the date or at the time or place specified in the notice calling the general meeting, it may postpone the general meeting to another date, time and/or place. The Board shall take reasonable steps to ensure that notice of the date, time and place of the postponed meeting is provided to any Member trying to attend the meeting at the original time and place. When a meeting is so postponed, notice of the date, time and place of the postponed meeting shall be given in such manner as the Board may in its absolute discretion determine. Notice of the business to be transacted at such postponed meeting shall not be required. If no Director is present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, the persons present and entitled to vote on a poll shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting. 65. The chairman may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. 77. If (i) any objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter or (ii) any vote has been counted which ought not to have been counted or which might have been rejected or (iii) any vote is not counted which ought to have been counted, the objection or error shall not vitiate the decision of the meeting or adjourned meeting on any resolution unless the same is raised or pointed out at the meeting or, as the case may be, the adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and shall only vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution if the chairman decides that the same would have affected the decision of the meeting. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 12 months from the date named in it as the date of its execution, except at an adjourned meeting in cases where the meeting was originally held within 12 months from such date. Delivery of an instrument appointing a proxy shall not preclude a Member from attending and voting in person at the meeting concerned.

81. Instruments of proxy shall be in any common two way form or in such other form as the Board may approve and the Board may, if it thinks fit, send out with the notice of any meeting forms of instrument of proxy for use at the meeting. Except as otherwise provided in these Articles, a person so authorised to the satisfaction of the Directors (who may require such person to produce such documents as the Directors may reasonably require to satisfy themselves of the validity of such authorization) shall be entitled to exercise the same power on behalf of the corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company, and the corporation shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting if a person so authorised is present at it. No Member shall have any claim against the Directors or any of them, nor may any such exercise by the Directors of their powers under this Article invalidate the proceedings of the meeting in respect of which such powers were exercised, or any resolution passed or defeated at such meeting.

- (iv) the dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been accorded) shall not be payable in cash on shares in respect whereof the share election has been duly exercised ("the elected shares”) and in lieu and in satisfaction thereof shares shall be allotted credited as fully paid-up to the holders of the elected shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid and for such purpose the Board shall capitalise and apply out of any part of any of the Company’s reserve accounts or profit and loss account or amounts otherwise available for distribution as the Board may determine such sum as may be required to pay up in full the appropriate number of shares for allotment and distribution to and amongst the holders of the elected shares on such basis.

(B) The shares allotted pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (A) of this Article shall rank pari passu in all respects with the shares then in issue save only as regards participation:—

The Board may authorise any person to enter into, on behalf of all Members interested, an agreement with the Company providing for such capitalisation and matters incidental thereto and any agreement made pursuant to such authority shall be effective and binding on all concerned.

Capitalization

(D) The Company may upon the recommendation of the Board by special resolution resolve in respect of any one particular dividend of the Company that notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (A) of this Article a dividend may be satisfied wholly in the form of an allotment of shares credited as fully paid-up without offering any right to the Members to elect to receive such dividend in cash in lieu of such allotment.
