18. Consequences of an Event of Default

18.1 If an Event of Default occurs, the Bank may uplift the Deposit before the Maturity Date without having any obligation to pay any interest on the Deposit notwithstanding any previously agreed terms, and declare all or any Forward Exchange Contracts terminated as of a date it may in its sole and absolute discretion select (the "Early Termination Date"), and the Forward Exchange Contracts and the obligations of the Bank in connection with such Forward Exchange Contracts shall terminate as of such Early Termination Date (whether or not such Event of Default is continuing on that date).

18.2 Upon the occurrence or effective designation of an Early Termination Date, no further payments or deliveries under Clause 16.1 and 16.2 in respect of the terminated Forward Exchange Contracts will be required to be made, but without prejudice to the other provisions of this Schedule VI. The amount, if any, payable in respect of an Early Termination Date will be determined pursuant to Clause 19.

18.3 On or as soon as reasonably practicable following the occurrence or designation of an Early Termination Date, the Bank will make the calculations contemplated by Clause 19 and will provide or make available to the Customer a statement showing information of such calculations, in such form and manner as the Bank in its sole and absolute discretion deems appropriate.

18.4 An Early Termination Amount (as defined below) due in respect of any designated Early Termination Date will be payable on the day on which the Bank shall by notice specify such amount is to be payable.

19. Calculation of Early Termination Amount

19.1 If an Early Termination Date has been designated, the amount, if any, payable in respect of that Early Termination Date (the "Early Termination Amount") will be determined by the Bank under this Clause 19 and the provision of Clause 16.1(c) shall apply.

19.2 Close-out Amount

- (1) With respect to each terminated Forward Exchange Contracts or each group of terminated Forward Exchange Contracts, the Bank will calculate, in its sole and absolute discretion, the amount of losses or costs that are or would be incurred by the Bank under then prevailing circumstances (expressed as a positive number) or the amount of gains by the Bank that are or would be realized by the Bank under the then prevailing circumstances (expressed as a negative number) in replacing, or in providing for the Bank the economic equivalent of the material terms of that Forward Exchange Contracts or group of Forward Exchange Contracts, including the payments and deliveries (whether the underlying obligation was absolute or contingent and assuming the satisfaction of each applicable condition precedent) by the parties under Clause 16 in respect of that terminated Forward Exchange Contract or group of terminated Forward Exchange Contracts that would, but for the occurrence of the relevant Early Termination Date, have been required after that date (the "Close-out Amount").
- (2) Any Close-out Amount will be determined by the Bank in good faith and the Bank will use commercially reasonable procedures in order to produce a commercially reasonable result. The Bank may determine a Close-out Amount for any group of terminated Forward Exchange Contracts or individual terminated Forward Exchange Contracts but, in the aggregate, for not less than all terminated Forward Exchange Contracts. The Bank will determine each Close-out Amount as of the Early Termination Date or, if this would not be commercially reasonable, as of the date or dates following the Early Termination Date as would, in the Bank's sole opinion be commercially reasonable.

- (3) Unpaid Amounts in respect of a terminated Forward Exchange Contract or group of terminated Forward Exchange Contracts are to be excluded in all determinations of Close-out Amounts.

19.3 Unpaid Amounts

With respect to each terminated Forward Exchange Contract, the Bank will calculate in its sole and absolute discretion, the amounts owing to each party with respect to an Early Termination Date, being the aggregate of (i) in respect of all terminated Forward Exchange Contracts, the amounts that became payable (or would have become payable but for the proviso of Clause 16.2) to such party under Clause 16 on or before such Early Termination Date and which remain unpaid as at such Early Termination Date, and (ii) in respect of each Forward Exchange Contract, for each obligation under Clause 16 which was (or would have been but for the proviso of Clause 16.2) required to be settled by delivery to such party on or before such Early Termination Date and which has not been so settled as at such Early Termination Date, an amount equal to the fair market value of that which was (or would have been) required to be delivered in respect of the relevant Forward Exchange Contract (the "Unpaid Amount").

19.4 Early Termination Amount

- (1) The Early Termination Amount will be an amount equal to (i) the sum of (A) the Termination Currency Equivalent of the Close-out Amount or Close-out Amounts (whether positive or negative) determined by the Bank for each terminated Forward Exchange Contract or group of terminated Forward Exchange Contract, as the case may be, and (B) the Termination Currency Equivalent of the Unpaid Amounts owing to the Bank and less (ii) the Termination Currency Equivalent of the Unpaid Amounts owing to the Customer.
- (2) The Bank may also take into account the cost to uplift the Deposit before the Maturity Date and any other fees and charges remain due by the Customer under this Schedule VI when calculating the Early Termination Amount. If the Early Termination Amount is a positive number, the Customer will pay it to the Bank; if it is a negative number, the Bank will pay the absolute value of the Early Termination Amount to the Customer.

19.5 The parties agree that the amounts recoverable under this Clause 19 are a reasonable pre-estimate of loss and not a penalty. Such amounts are payable for the loss of bargain and the loss of protection against future risks and, except as otherwise provided in this Schedule VI, neither party will be entitled to recover any additional damages as a consequence of such losses.

20. Early withdrawal or settlement by the Customer

20.1 Early withdrawal of the Deposit or settlement of the Forward Exchange Contract(s) by the Customer before the Maturity Date or Settlement Date is not allowed under the Service. It will be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Bank to allow such withdrawal or settlement in very exceptional circumstances and on such terms and conditions as the Bank may think fit.

20.2 Should the Bank agree to such early withdrawal or settlement by the Customer, the Bank reserves the right not to pay any interest on the Deposit. The Bank shall be entitled to determine conclusively an amount covering any costs, charges, fees, expenses, losses, hedging and unwinding costs and expenses, liabilities and damages suffered or incurred by the Bank to uplift the Deposit or terminate any or all of the Forward Exchange Contract(s) before the Maturity Date or Settlement Date and any other costs and expenses incidental thereto (collectively, the “Loss Amount”), and to deduct the Loss Amount from the principal of the Deposit or other amounts (if any) in relation to the Deposit or Forward Exchange Contract(s) which are otherwise payable to the Customer. In the event that the principal of the Deposit or other amount (if any) are insufficient to indemnify or reimburse the Bank the Loss Amount in full, the Bank shall be entitled at any time to claim and recover from the Customer any amount of the shortfall and without notice to the Customer, to exercise its rights of set-off under these Terms and Conditions.

20.3 Partial early withdrawal of the Deposit will not be allowed at any time.

20.4 This Clause 20 shall not in any way prejudice the Bank’s other rights under these Terms and Conditions (including this Schedule VI), in particular, the operation of Clauses 17, 18 and 19 in this Schedule VI.

21. Full Indemnity

21.1 Without prejudice to the rights of the Bank hereunder, the Customer shall pay all costs, losses, damages, charges and expenses (including legal fees on a full indemnity basis) whatsoever and howsoever incurred by the Bank in connection with or arising out of or in any way consequential upon the termination of the Forward Exchange Contracts as aforesaid, and in the enforcement and preservation of the Bank’s rights under this Schedule VI or any Forward Exchange Contracts.

21.2 The Customer shall immediately upon the Bank’s request execute and sign all such documents and do or procure the doing of all such other acts and things as the Bank may deem necessary or appropriate to secure to the Bank the full benefits of all of its rights to the Account or any part or parts thereof and shall pay all legal fees (on a full indemnity basis) and other costs and disbursements (and any goods and services tax payable in connection therewith) incurred in connection with demanding and enforcing the payment of moneys due or owing to the Bank or otherwise howsoever in enforcing any of its rights under this Schedule VI and any Forward Exchange Contract.

22. Set-off and Restrictions

22.1 For the avoidance of doubt, the Bank's rights to retain, set-off, appropriate or apply any obligations owed by the Bank to the Customer under Clause 3.4 of Part A of these Terms and Conditions (Set-off and Lien) shall include any collateral held by the Bank or any deposits placed in the Bank (whether fixed or term deposits, whether matured or not, whether subject to any special conditions, regardless of the currency, place of payment or booking office of the obligation).

22.2 If an obligation is unascertained, the Bank may estimate that obligation and set off in respect of the estimate, subject to the relevant party accounting to the other when the obligation is ascertained.

22.3 For so long as any obligations are outstanding or owing or unpaid to the Bank by the Customer:

(a) the Bank shall be entitled without prior notice to the Customer, to withhold (including by way of earmarking any amount in any account), and to refuse to accept or honour any orders for or payment or withdrawal of the whole or any part of the account. The Customer undertakes that so long as any obligations are outstanding or owing or unpaid to the Bank by the Customer, the Customer shall not revoke or alter the Customer's Instructions with respect to any account designated by the Customer or the Bank for the purpose of this Schedule VI; and

(b) the Customer shall not withdraw or in any way cause or permit to be withdrawn, or assign, deal with or create (or agree, conditionally or unconditionally, to assign, deal with or create) or have outstanding any mortgage, lien, charge, or other security on or over all or any part of the account (other than as created under the Transaction Documents) without the Bank's prior consent in writing.

22.4 The Customer agrees that in the event any of the Customer's creditors should seek to attach the account by any proceedings or otherwise or in the event that a liquidator, receiver, administrator, judicial manager or other similar officer should be appointed by the Customer or over any of the Customer's assets or properties, the Bank's right of set-off shall be deemed to have arisen immediately before the commencement of such proceedings or before such appointment (as the case may be).

23. Collateral

23.1 The Customer undertakes to provide or deliver to the Bank a Charge over Deposit or such other collateral (including but not limited to cash, bonds and any other assets or property which are acceptable to the Bank) as the Bank may from time to time require to secure, collateralize or otherwise support the Customer's obligations to the Bank under this Schedule VI, on such terms or under such arrangements as the Bank may request. For the avoidance of doubt, (a) the acceptability of any asset or property as collateral, and (b) the valuation of such collateral shall be determined at the sole discretion of the Bank and may be subject to changes from time to time at the sole and absolute discretion of the Bank.

23.2 The Customer shall not withdraw from the Bank any collateral except to the extent that the Bank confirms in writing that such asset or property which forms part of the collateral is not required in respect of any outstanding liabilities under this Schedule VI. The Bank is entitled at any time, without prior notice or restriction, to appropriate the whole or any part of the collateral held in the discharge of any indebtedness of the Customer to the Bank under this Schedule VI or otherwise, and for the purposes of so doing, may convert such sums (or any part thereof) into any currency other than that in which they are held. The rates used will be at the sole discretion of the Bank but will be the market rates for the amounts so converted.
