

Wing Hang Bank Raised HK$3.8 million for Oxfam Hong Kong's Sichuan Earthquake Relief Fund

(18 June 2008, Hong Kong) Wing Hang Bank has recently launched the "5·12 Sichuan Earthquake Relief Fund Raising Campaign". Through the concerted effort of the Bank's employees and customers, HK$3.8 million was raised in a short period of time.

At the cheque presentation ceremony held on 16 June at the Bank's headquarters, Dr. Patrick Fung, Chairman and Chief Executive of Wing Hang Bank, presented a cheque of HK$3.8 million to Mr. Bernard Chan, Vice-Chair of Oxfam Hong Kong.

Mr. Michael Fung, Executive Director of Wing Hang Bank, remarked in his opening address, "The funds collected from our employees and customers quickly reached HK$1 million in the very first week, which was very impressive. The HK$3.8 million raised for Oxfam Hong Kong demonstrated the charitable effort of everyone in the Bank and the community at large. On behalf of Wing Hang Bank, I would like to thank our employees and customers for their generosity in supporting the campaign. We sincerely hope the unfortunate victims could have their homes rebuilt soon."

The Wing Hang Bank group, including Wing Hang Bank (China) Ltd and Banco Weng Hang. S.A., has raised a total of HK$5 million to support the Sichuan earthquake relief effort.
